

Maximizing Our Collective Impact

The closing plenary provides an opportunity for conference attendees to consider their own roles in building effectiveness in child welfare and how everyone can play a part in positively impacting outcomes by using data and evaluation, applying what they have learned, and valuing a variety of voices and types of evidence in the process.

Session Resources

Participation Models: Citizens, Youth, Online

Details a collection of 36 models from 1969 to 2012 of different models and theories of participation. This resource includes some of the most used and debated models and concepts in youth and citizen participation and provides an in-depth overview for new and experience practitioners, academics and individuals.

