

Collaborating with Courts to Promote Foster Care as a Support to Families, Not a Substitute for Parents

May 28, 2020 | 1:00 – 2:30 pm ET

Event Agenda

- I. Housekeeping and Agenda Overview
Jennifer Marcelli, Foster Care Program Area Manager, Capacity Building Center for States
- II. Voices from the Field: Foster Care as a Support to Families, Not a Substitute for Parents Montage
- III. Welcoming Remarks from the Administration for Families and Children
Assistant Secretary Lynn Johnson, HHS Administration for Children and Families
- IV. Introduction of National Foster Care Month (NFCM)
Taffy Compain, National Foster Care Specialist, Children's Bureau
- V. Screening of "It Takes a Village: Collaboration is Key to Supporting Families, Stories from Hancock, Mississippi"
Taffy Compain, National Foster Care Specialist, Children's Bureau
- VI. Introductions – Associate Commissioner Jerry Milner, Children's Bureau; Judge Trent Favre, Hancock County Youth Court; Lanie Roussel, Parent Attorney, Hancock County Youth Court
Taffy Compain, National Foster Care Specialist, Children's Bureau
- VII. Let's Talk About It! How Courts Collaborate to Support Families
- VIII. Question and Answer
Jennifer Marcelli, Foster Care Program Area Manager, Capacity Building Center for States
- IX. Closing Remarks
Associate Commissioner Jerry Milner, Children's Bureau
- X. Event Closing
Jennifer Marcelli, Foster Care Program Area Manager, Capacity Building Center for States